This lot may be used but has not yet been transferred. This lot was a tax foreclosure property and has been maintained by the City since its acquisition eliminating blight in this lower income neighborhood. As of the remediation date, the property was not sold. Therefore, the City has maintained the activity by moving the total Fair Market Value (FMV) to IDIS #2543. Some dollars remain because the FMV does not cover the total expenses. HUD approval required to cancel this activity. Q4: Awaiting HUD Field Office approval to cancel this project with draws.

2010	2nd Quarter: 4/27 funded activity $240,000. Acquired property 5/11/2010 and budget amendments total $3,658.05. 3rd Quarter: budget amendments for a total of $4,328.61. Building acquired. 4th Quarter: Request for Proposals being prepared for the Amerock building and will be marketed for a minimum of 6 months.
2011	Amerock Building is now called the Ziock Building. The Friends of Ziock, State of Illinois, and the City have entered into a Memorandum of Agreement and marketing agreement for a 12 month period. If a developer is identified, the property will be redeveloped. If not, after a 6 month process, the building will be demolished.
2012	The City is working with a potential developer of this building, which entails the redevelopment of the property as mixed use. The developer is in the process of completing their redevelopment plan with a sources and uses/pro-forma. This was expected to be submitted in the spring of 2013 but the developer was granted an extension until July, 2013.
2013	3rd Q: The developer with an exclusive period of time to perform due diligence and discern the feasibility and viability of the development of the Amerock Building/Ziock Building submitted a draft Sources and Uses in July, 2013. 4th Q: An administrative review of the proposed draft development agreement underway while continuing to pursue options for reuse in accordance with the general requirements of the Illinois Historic Preservation Commission.
2014	The plans to turn the 13-story Amerock building into a $66 million hotel and convention center continues. The CDBG funds originally invested in this project for acquisition will be repaid once all financing mechanisms are put into place and title is transferred to the developer.
